

Support Hub for victims and survivors of terrorism

Victims and survivors of terrorism will receive strengthened support as the government today launches a commercial competition to establish a new dedicated support hub.