

Sweet chestnut blight outbreak prompts swift action

New Demarcated Area established in Devon following the first detection of airborne spores in Great Britain since 2011