

Home Affairs – One year on

□Significant measures have been taken to safeguard Australia's national security since the Home Affairs portfolio was established a year ago.

Labor again weakens border policy

Labor's announcements today on its proposed actions to protect Australia's borders are nothing but subterfuge.

Joint media release with the Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Minister and Federal Member for Petrie Luke Howarth MP – Linkfield Road overpass to be duplicated

□A duplication of the Linkfield Road overpass will bust congestion and improve safety at a notorious bottleneck in Brisbane's north.

National Strategy to fight Transnational, Serious and Organised Crime

The Coalition Government has today launched the National Strategy to fight Transnational, Serious and Organised Crime to better protect the safety and security of all Australians.

New Commander for Operation Sovereign

Borders

Major General Craig Furini AM, CSC, will take over as the new Commander of Operation Sovereign Borders this week.