Police today (February 1) appealed to the public for information on a man who went missing in Kwai Chung.

Yung Tsz-kit, aged 36, went missing after he left his residence in Fu Yin House, Tai Wo Hau Estate on January 17 afternoon. His family made a report to Police on January 21.

He is about 1.75 metres tall, 73 kilograms in weight and of medium build. He has a long face with yellow complexion and short black hair. He was last seen wearing a black short-sleeved T-shirt, grey shorts and black shoes.

Anyone who knows the whereabouts of the missing man or may have seen him is urged to contact the Regional Missing Person Unit of New Territories South on 3661 1176 or 9689 7445 or email to rmpu-nts-2@police.gov.hk, or contact any police station.

Census and Statistics Department appeals to respondents to respond to statistical surveys through online and telephone means

To tie in with the Government's announcement of the extension of the special work arrangement until February 9 and the provision of basic and limited public services, the Census and Statistics Department (C&SD) will conduct essential data collection work for statistical surveys on a limited scale during the aforementioned period so that key social and economic statistics can be released as scheduled.

In order to reduce human-to-human contacts, a C&SD spokesman today (February 1) appealed to survey respondents to complete the surveys using the Online Questionnaire System (OQS), the electronic questionnaire template or by telephone interview by calling C&SD. Details on how to use the OQS, the electronic questionnaire template and the enquiry telephone numbers of the surveys are provided in the invitation letters that had been sent to the sampled respondents by C&SD. Meanwhile, for those respondents whose telephone contacts are available to C&SD, enumerators of C&SD will contact them for telephone interviews. For enquiries regarding the surveys or the identity of the enumerators, please call the enquiry hotline 2582 4798 or write to the enquiry email at household_survey@censtatd.gov.hk.

For enquiries about the Hong Kong Harmonized System code for import/export declaration purposes, members of the public can use the search function on the C&SD website (www.censtatd.gov.hk/trader/hscode/index.jsp). For further assistance, please contact C&SD through the Commodity Code Enquiry Hotline (3178 8933) during opening hours, by fax (2824 2782) or email (trade-declaration@censtatd.gov.hk).

AFCD provides basic and limited public services starting from next week

In light of the extension of special work arrangements for government departments and the latest development of the novel coronavirus infection, the Agriculture, Fisheries and Conservation Department (AFCD) announced today (February 1) that starting from next Monday (February 3), licensing services counters at Cheung Sha Wan Government Offices and the Marine Parks Office at CDW Building, 388 Castle Peak Road, Tsuen Wan will provide basic and limited public services to members of the public. Relevant services will be provided on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 9.30am to noon and 2pm to 5pm, until further notice.

The AFCD appeals to the public to use the above counter services only when in urgent need. Members of the public are encouraged to handle their licence or permit applications through email, post or fax. For detailed information and contacts, please refer to the AFCD website: www.afcd.gov.hk.

Meanwhile, AFCD public facilities including the Hong Kong Wetland Park, eight Country Park Visitor/Education Centres, seven Hong Kong Geopark Park Visitor Centres and the Endangered Species Resources Centre will remain temporarily closed.

For enquiries, please call the AFCD on 2708 8885.

GLD's latest service arrangement
