

Appeal for information on missing woman in Hung Hom (with photo)

Police today (June 30) appealed to the public for information on a woman who went missing in Hung Hom.

Chan Lai-mui, aged 79, went missing after she left a hostel at Baker Court in the small hours on June 28. Staff of the hostel made a report to Police on the same day.

She is about 1.5 metres tall, 41 kilograms in weight and of thin build. She has a square face with yellow complexion and short white hair. She was last seen wearing a white shirt, black trousers and black slippers.

Anyone who knows the whereabouts of the missing woman or may have seen her is urged to contact the Regional Missing Person Unit of Kowloon West on 3661 8038 or 9020 6542 or email to rmpu-kw@police.gov.hk, or contact any police station.

Appeal for information on missing woman in Chai Wan (with photo)

Police today (June 30) appealed to the public for information on a woman who went missing in Chai Wan.

Yuen Chi-yeuk Lora, aged 47, went missing after she was last seen on Shau Kei Wan Road on June 21 afternoon. Her family made a report to Police yesterday (June 29).

She is about 1.58 metres tall, 52 kilograms in weight and of normal build. She has a round face with yellow complexion and short straight black hair. She was last seen wearing glasses, a dark blue jacket, dark-coloured trousers and white sports shoes.

Anyone who knows the whereabouts of the missing woman or may have seen her is urged to contact the Regional Missing Person Unit of Hong Kong Island on 2860 1040 or 9886 0034 or email to rmpu-hki@police.gov.hk, or contact any police station.

HKMA welcomes setting up of a BIS Innovation Hub Centre in Hong Kong

The following is issued on behalf of the Hong Kong Monetary Authority:

The Bank for International Settlements (BIS) announced today (June 30) that it will establish a BIS Innovation Hub (the "Hub") to foster international collaboration on innovative financial technology within the central banking community. One of the Hub Centres will be set up in Hong Kong. The Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA) welcomes this development.

The Chief Executive of the HKMA, Mr Norman Chan, said, "I am very pleased to see that the BIS will set up a Hub Centre in Hong Kong. This is a clear recognition of Hong Kong's leading role in the development and application of innovative financial technologies and its vibrant fintech ecosystem. As a member of the BIS, the HKMA welcomes the establishment of the Hub and is fully supportive of its work. We will work closely with the Hub to contribute to its research projects on technology and innovation to foster better collaboration among central banks and the wider community."

The role of the Hub will be to identify and develop in-depth insights into critical trends in technology affecting central banking; develop public goods in the technology space geared towards improving the functioning of the global financial system; and serve as a focal point for a network of central bank experts on innovation.

The BIS, founded in 1930, is an international financial organisation with a membership of 60 shareholding central banks. Its mission is to serve central banks in their pursuit of monetary and financial stability, to foster international cooperation in those areas and to act as a bank for central banks.

Housing Authority awards winners of short video contest (with photos)

The following is issued on behalf of the Hong Kong Housing Authority:

The Hong Kong Housing Authority (HA) today (June 30) hosted a prize presentation ceremony for the "Making Precious Memories – Life in Public Housing" Short Video Contest to commend winners for promoting harmonious living in public housing estates.

The prize presentation ceremony was held at the HA's major shopping mall Domain in Yau Tong. Winners of 11 awards and six groups of Outstanding Performers were recognised.

The Deputy Director of Housing (Corporate Services), Ms Polly Kwok; the Assistant Director of Housing (Estate Management)², Ms Josephine Shu; and HA Subsidised Housing Committee member Mr Anthony Chiu officiated at the ceremony.

The territory-wide short video contest was classified into two categories, namely Open and Secondary School. It attracted more than 100 current and former public housing residents to participate with a total of 50 videos received. A judging panel chaired by film director and scriptwriter Sunny Chan selected the winners based on the entrants' content, creativity, impact and audio-visual effects.

Chan was invited to attend today's ceremony, and he shared his comments on the entries with the winners and guests.

The list of winners (Chinese only) has been uploaded to a webpage in the Housing Authority/Housing Department website (www.housingauthority.gov.hk/video-contest).

Appeal for information on missing boy in Lantau North (with photo)

Police today (June 30) appealed to the public for information on a boy who went missing in Lantau North.

Earl Seamus Barry Siam, aged 15, went missing after he left his residence on Kin Tung Road last night (June 29). His family made a report to Police on the same day.

He is about 1.75 metres tall, 60 kilograms in weight and of thin build. He has a long face with yellow complexion and short brown hair. He was last seen wearing a short-sleeved shirt with dark colour and white stripes, dark trousers and black and white checkered cloth shoes.

Anyone who knows the whereabouts of the missing boy or may have seen him is urged to contact the Regional Missing Person Unit of New Territories South on 3661 1173 or 6331 8151 or email to rmpu-nts-2@police.gov.hk, or contact any police station.

