

Over 1 600 quality job vacancies to be offered at Job Fair for Residential Care Home Service Industry

The Labour Department (LD) will hold a large-scale job fair at Southorn Stadium in Wan Chai on June 8 and 9 to provide a large number of vacancies from the residential care home service industry for job seekers.

About 30 organisations will participate in the two-day job fair and offer over 1 600 quality job vacancies from the residential care home service industry. Participating organisations will set up booths and conduct recruitment on the spot each day. A wide variety of positions will be offered including care worker, training instructor, physiotherapist, occupational therapist, social worker, nurse, child care aide, programme assistant, administrative assistant and cook. Job seekers can visit the LD's Interactive Employment Service website (www.jobs.gov.hk) for more details of the vacancies.

Over 95 per cent of the vacancies offered at the job fair are full-time jobs. Most vacancies offer monthly salaries ranging from $14,000 to $23,000. About 87 per cent of the vacancies require a Secondary Five education level or below. Around 75 per cent are open to job seekers without relevant work experience.

Job seekers can submit job applications during the event and may be selected for on-the-spot interviews. They can also make enquiries on the employment services provided by the LD at its counter inside the venue.

The job fair will be held from 11am to 5.30pm at 1/F, Southorn Stadium, 111 Johnston Road, Wan Chai (near Wan Chai MTR Station Exit A3). Admission is free, with final admission time at 5pm each day.
