

Twelve persons arrested during anti-illegal worker operations (with photos)

The Immigration Department (ImmD) mounted a series of territory-wide anti-illegal worker operations, including operations codenamed "Twilight" and a joint operation with the Hong Kong Police Force codenamed "Champion", from March 22 to yesterday (March 25). A total of eight suspected illegal workers and four suspected employers were arrested.

During the "Twilight" operations, ImmD Task Force officers raided 149 target locations including food and beverage areas, a massage parlour, a premises under renovation, private housing estates, restaurants and a store. Six suspected illegal workers and four employers were arrested. The suspected illegal workers comprised four men and two women, aged 28 to 38. Among them, three men and a woman were holders of recognisance forms, which prohibit them from taking any employment. In addition, a man and a woman were suspected of using and being in possession of forged Hong Kong identity cards. Meanwhile, three men and a woman, aged 53 to 56, were suspected of employing the illegal workers.

In addition, during operation "Champion", enforcement officers raided 14 target locations including loading/unloading platforms, warehouses and offices inside a Hong Kong International Airport cargo terminal. Two suspected illegal workers were arrested. The suspected illegal workers comprised two men, aged 26 and 51. Both men were holders of recognisance forms, which prohibit them from taking any employment.

"Any person who contravenes a condition of stay in force in respect of him shall be guilty of an offence. Also, visitors are not allowed to take employment in Hong Kong, whether paid or unpaid, without the permission of the Director of Immigration. Offenders are liable to prosecution and upon conviction face a maximum fine of $50,000 and up to two years' imprisonment. Aiders and abettors are also liable to prosecution and penalties," an ImmD spokesman said.

The spokesman warned that, as stipulated in section 38AA of the Immigration Ordinance, illegal immigrants or people who are the subject of a removal order or a deportation order are prohibited from taking any employment, whether paid or unpaid, or establishing or joining in any business. Offenders are liable upon conviction to a maximum fine of $50,000 and up to three years' imprisonment. The Court of Appeal has issued a guideline ruling that a sentence of 15 months' imprisonment should be applied in such cases. It is an offence to use or possess a forged Hong Kong identity card or a Hong Kong identity card related to another person. Offenders are liable to prosecution and a maximum penalty of a $100,000 fine and up to 10 years' imprisonment.

The spokesman reiterated that it is a serious offence to employ people who are not lawfully employable. The maximum penalty is imprisonment for three years and a fine of $350,000. The High Court has laid down sentencing guidelines that the employer of an illegal worker should be given an immediate custodial sentence. According to the court sentencing, employers must take all practicable steps to determine whether a person is lawfully employable prior to employment. Apart from inspecting a prospective employee's identity card, the employer has the explicit duty to make enquiries regarding the person and ensure that the answers would not cast any reasonable doubt concerning the lawful employability of the person. The court will not accept failure to do so as a defence in proceedings. It is also an offence if an employer fails to inspect the job seeker's valid travel document if the job seeker does not have a Hong Kong permanent identity card. The maximum penalty for failing to inspect such a document is imprisonment for one year and a fine of $150,000.

Under the existing mechanism, the ImmD will, as a standard procedure, conduct initial screening of vulnerable persons, including illegal workers, illegal immigrants, sex workers and foreign domestic helpers, who are arrested during any operation with a view to ascertaining whether they are trafficking in persons (TIP) victims. When any TIP indicator is revealed in the initial screening, the officers will conduct a full debriefing and identification by using a standardised checklist to ascertain the presence of TIP elements, such as threats and coercion in the recruitment phase and the nature of exploitation. Identified TIP victims will be provided with various forms of support and assistance, including urgent intervention, medical services, counselling, shelter, temporary accommodation and other supporting services. The ImmD calls on TIP victims to report crimes to the relevant departments.

Special traffic arrangements for Ching Ming Festival

Police will implement special traffic arrangements in various districts to facilitate grave sweepers, and to ensure smooth vehicular traffic movements and pedestrian safety during Ching Ming Festival. To prevent the spread of COVID-19, the Police appealed to members of the public to arrange grave-sweeping activities over a wider period before and after the Ching Ming Festival (April 4) to avoid overcrowding. Members of the public are reminded to observe regulations on group gatherings and mask wearing.

The Hong Kong Observatory (HKO) launched the "Hong Kong Observatory Open Day 2021" webpage today (March 26) to facilitate the public's understanding of the HKO's work and services through virtual tours of the HKO Headquarters.

In view of the pandemic developments, the HKO Open Day will be held online for the first time this year. It will adopt the theme of this year's World Meteorological Day, "The ocean, our climate and weather". The webpage will provide a diversified virtual visit experience through virtual tours, videos and interactive games.

At around 3pm tomorrow afternoon (March 27), a sand-painting performance to bring out messages related to climate change and extreme weather will be live-streamed on the webpage and the HKO's Facebook page. Results of the online polling campaign "2016-2020 Top 10 Mind-boggling Weather and Climate Events Selection", which attracted over 5 000 voters, will also be announced.

Members of the public are welcome to visit the "Hong Kong Observatory Open Day 2021" webpage at (openday.hko.gov.hk/).

Import of poultry meat and products from Gorlicki District of MaÅ,opolskie Region in Poland suspended

The Centre for Food Safety (CFS) of the Food and Environmental Hygiene Department announced today (March 26) that in view of a notification from the General Veterinary Inspectorate of Poland about outbreaks of highly pathogenic avian influenza in Gorlicki District of MaÅ,opolskie Region in Poland, the CFS has instructed the trade to suspend the import of poultry meat and products (including poultry eggs) from the district with immediate effect to protect public health in Hong Kong.

A CFS spokesman said that according to the Census and Statistics Department, Hong Kong imported about 13 500 tonnes of frozen poultry meat and about 39.08 million poultry eggs from Poland last year.

"The CFS has contacted the Polish authorities over the issues and will closely monitor information issued by the World Organisation for Animal Health and the relevant authorities on the avian influenza outbreaks. Appropriate action will be taken in response to the development of the situation," the spokesman said.
