

UK beef hits US shelves tariff-free for the first time – cutting costs for UK businesses

First tariff-free shipment of UK beef arrives in the US, as government works in partnership with the food and farming industries to save millions in export fees and grow the UK economy

Bird flu (avian influenza): latest situation in England

Find out about the latest bird flu situation in England and guidance for bird keepers and the public.

England's largest land manager to help home-grown clean energy

Consumers are set to benefit from more home-grown clean energy, with an increased number of renewable projects to be enabled on the public forest estate

Bird flu (avian influenza): latest situation in England

Find out about the latest bird flu situation in England and guidance for bird keepers and the public.

Guidance: Official veterinary surgeon (OVS) notes

Changes to import controls for animals and products of animal origin.