

Policy paper: Integrated pollution prevention and control: developing and setting of Best Available Techniques (BAT) provisional common framework

How the UK government and devolved governments propose to work together on the regulation, control and prevention of pollution from industry.

Policy paper: Plant varieties and seeds: provisional common framework

How the UK government and devolved governments propose to work together in policy areas covering plant varieties and seeds.

Policy paper: Plant health: provisional common framework

How the UK government and devolved governments propose to work together on plant health policy.

Policy paper: Organics: provisional common framework

How the UK government and devolved governments propose to work together in policy areas covering organic production and certification.

National Statistics: Latest poultry and poultry meat statistics

Monthly statistics on the activity of UK hatcheries and UK poultry slaughterhouses.