

Open consultation: Local factors in managing flood and coastal erosion risk and property flood resilience: call for evidence

Seeking evidence on how local factors can be taken into account in the government's flood and coastal defence investment programme and how we can increase the uptake of property flood resilience.

Press release: Government proposes further support for flood resilience measures

Plans include insurance payments for flood-hit properties to build back better and discounted premiums for flood resilient homes

Press release: Government proposes further support for flood resilience measures

Plans include insurance payments for flood-hit properties to build back better and discounted premiums for flood resilient homes

Detailed guide: Badgers, beavers, otters, pine martens and stoats: how to trap humanely

Trappers of certain species of mammal must use traps that meet international humaneness standards.

Policy paper: Expedited Return Scheme (ERS)

Amendment to the Kent traffic management plan which aims to maintain food supply to the UK and Gibraltar in the event of road disruption at the Short Straits.