

Form: Canada geese: licence to kill or take them for public health and safety (GL28)

Get a general licence to kill or take Canada geese during the close season to preserve public health and safety.

Form: Woodpigeons: licence to kill or take them to prevent serious damage to crops (GL31)

Get a general licence to kill or take woodpigeons, or take, damage or destroy their nests and eggs to prevent serious damage to crops.

Form: Carrion crows: licence to kill or take them to prevent serious damage to livestock (GL26)

Get a general licence to kill or take carrion crows, or destroy their nests and eggs to prevent serious damage to vulnerable livestock.

Statutory guidance: Wild birds: licence to kill or take for conservation purposes (GL34 and GL40)

As a land owner, occupier or authorised person, use this general licence to kill or take certain wild birds to conserve wild birds and to conserve flora and fauna.

Statutory guidance: Wild birds: licence to kill or take for public health or safety (GL35 and GL41)

As a land owner, occupier or authorised person, use this general licence to kill or take certain wild birds to preserve public health or safety.