

A Brief Introduction to Liverpool's Historic Docks

Liverpool's historic docks are admired across the world and are considered so important to international heritage that in 2004 they were made a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. The Royal Albert Dock is also the North West's most visited tourist attraction with over 6.3 million visitors each year. Docks are enclosed areas of water in a port, designed for the loading, unloading and repair of ships and are present in most of England's major trading centres. In Liverpool the docksRead more

The Destruction and rebirth of Coventry Cathedral

In the 12 hours of the raids, 568 people were killed and over 4,000 homes destroyed. Read more

Conserving Yorkshire's Castles

In honour of Yorkshire Day on 1 August, we take a tour of some of the castles we've been involved in conserving for future generations across this fine part of England.Read more

100 Years of Council Housing: Six Responses to the 1919 Addison Act

The 1919 Housing and Town Planning Act was signed into law on 31 July 1919Read more

Seafront Surprises

The seafront – a place to sit, look at to sea, eat an ice cream, build a sand castle. But Allan Brodie, Historic England's own beach boy, suggests that you take a minute out from your hectic holiday and look around because there is a lot more to see on the seafront. Think of the seafront and you probably think of holidays, time on the beach, a dip in the sea. Or perhaps, strolling along a pier or 'enjoying' a Read more