

The Story of Maurice Dobson: The Tough-As-Nails, Openly Gay Ex-Miner

The little-known story of a charismatic, openly gay ex-coalminer from Barnsley.

Burton upon Trent: The Beer Capital of England

Once home to the biggest breweries in the world, Burton upon Trent became one of the great curiosities of the Victorian era.

What Was the Capital of England Before London?

London has long been the centre of England's government, business and finance. But has it always been the capital?

A History of Bradford in 10 Places

Once hailed as the 'wool capital of the world', Bradford played a central part in the Industrial Revolution in England.

The Buildings of Architect Watson

Fothergill

Discover the incredible buildings designed by prominent Nottingham architect Watson Fothergill.