Temporary Traffic Order – Riverside Approach

Lunchtime Recital – today! – Wednesday 25th July at 1.15pm

Friends of Wighton and the Wighton Heritage Centre are celebrating Scotland's Year of Young People with a holiday trio of Lunchtime Recitals featuring some of our finest young traditional musicians.

On Wednesday 25th July, we have our now traditional summer visit from the Feis Rois Ceilidh Trail, a recital that has been known to merge into a lively session.

This year we are delighted to welcome the Gaelic Ceilidh Trailers with Sean Clark (Guitar), Rachel Campbell (Accordion), Isla Ratcliff (Fiddle and Voice), Felix Churchill-Moss (Fiddle and Mandolin) and Duncan Macleod (Voice and Piano) focussing on Scotland's rich Gaelic repertoire.

McGonagall's Walk to be repaired

Following concerns expressed to me by residents that McGonagall's Walk on Riverside Drive has been damaged during recent flood prevention works, the City Council has given assurances that the walk will be repaired.

The council's City Development Director has now advised me :

"My Officers have investigated the damage to McGonagall's Walk art installation and established that there are seven cracked slabs and damage to one of the words which has removed one of the letters.

The damage to the slabs occurred during the construction of the new seawall. This has been raised with the contractors and who have advised that they will replace the damaged slabs, including the art work. The damage to the individual letter was not caused by the contractor and this will be replaced by the Council.”

I am pleased the walk is to be fully repaired as it is part of the city’s heritage – the work will be completed in the coming months.

McGonagall’s Walk is embedded in the pavement for 150 metres along Riverside Drive west of the V&A at Dundee. It includes an inscription of McGonagall’s poem, “The Railway Bridge of the Silvery Tay.”
