

Prime Minister visits Northwood Headquarters

The Prime Minister met with members of Joint Forces Command personnel and their families.

MOD to develop cutting-edge laser and radio frequency weapons

The Ministry of Defence is developing cutting-edge laser and radio frequency weapons which have the potential to revolutionise the battlefield.

Chinooks to stay in Mali to help in fight against violent extremism

The Prime Minister has announced that the UK's Chinook helicopters and personnel currently stationed with the French counter-terrorism operation in Northern Mali will extend their tour by a minimum of six months

British soldiers killed during WW2 are honoured as they are laid to rest

Two unknown British soldiers have finally been laid to rest after they lost their lives during World War 2.

Royal Navy destroyer HMS Duncan in Ukraine for major multinational maritime exercise

The Type-45 has docked in the Port of Odesa on the Black Sea alongside NATO Allies and partner nations for Exercise Sea Breeze 2019.