Defence Secretary meets NATO allies to discuss security challenges

The Defence Secretary has met with NATO counterparts in Brussels to discuss how the alliance can tackle evolving security challenges.

flm innovation boost for service personnel's welfare and training

DASA funds Armed Forces trial of cutting-edge artificial intelligence, psychological, and neuroscience tools and technology

Forces Help to Buy scheme extended for a further three years

A government scheme to help military personnel get on the housing ladder has been extended until the end of 2022, the Defence Secretary has announced.

New Office for Veterans' Affairs will ensure the UK leads the world in care for Armed Forces Veterans

The new office sits within the Cabinet Office and will pull together all functions of government, and better co-ordinate charity sector provision.

New solar panels generate savings at Worthy Down

Solar panels are helping the environment and saving money at the Defence College of Logistics, Policing and Administration (DCLPA) at Worthy Down.