

Permanent Secretary addresses DSEi

Permanent Secretary Stephen Lovegrove KCB discusses a new approach to the defence and security industry.

£1.5m boost for space innovation

Defence Minister Anne-Marie Trevelyan has announced a £1.5 million investment in 12 ground-breaking space innovation projects.

UK Space Conference

The Defence Science and Technology Laboratory (Dstl) seeks to exploit the full potential of Space for UK Defence and Security.

Britain's second carrier sets sail for sea trials

Britain's newest aircraft carrier, HMS Prince of Wales, has sailed from Rosyth Dockyard for the first time.

Coalition Autonomous Systems – the future of military logistics

Could autonomous vehicles save the lives of forces personnel? This was just one of the questions being answered during a joint experiment recently between the UK and US Armed Forces.