

Reforms will tackle domestic abuse and gender-based violence – Minister Long

Suite of legislative and strategic reforms will help tackle domestic abuse and gender-based violence and offer support to victims.

Cookstown Community encouraged to have their say on wider benefits of bypass scheme

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins is encouraging the local community in Cookstown to have their say on the wider social value benefits they would like to see delivered as part of the A29 Cookstown Bypass scheme.

Minister reflects on policing sacrifice

The Justice Minister and Chairman of the RUC George Cross Foundation came together this week to reflect on the sacrifice of police officers ahead of National Police Memorial Day.

The first 1,000 days in a child's life are critical – Minister Nesbitt

Life experiences in the first 1,000 days can have long-term implications for a child's health, growth and development, an updated framework for NI's universal child health promotion programme emphasises.

Minister Muir attends Northern Ireland Ploughing Championships

Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs Minister Andrew Muir has visited the annual NI Ploughing Championships in Gilford, Co Down.