

Long: Sexual abuse relies on stigma and fear to remain hidden

The Justice Minister told a conference in Belfast today that confronting sexual abuse requires everyone to play their part.

Kimmins welcomes new trainee planners

Infrastructure minister Liz Kimmins has welcomed eleven new trainee planners as they embark on the first term of their programme at Belfast Metropolitan College.

Dedicated Controlled Schools' Unit Launched

Education Minister, Paul Givan, has welcomed the formal launch of the Education Authority's Controlled Schools' Unit (CSU).

Announcement of Senior Civil Service Leadership appointments

Jayne Brady, the Head of the Northern Ireland Civil Service, has announced appointments to the positions of Permanent Secretaries as well as the Departmental Solicitor and Head of Government Legal Service for Northern Ireland. These appointments follow recent open recruitment competitions.

NI Cancer Nursing Clinical Career Pathway launched

The Department of Health has launched a Cancer Nursing Clinical Career Pathway for Northern Ireland, marking a significant step in strengthening the region's cancer nursing workforce