

Inclusive playpark opens ahead of summer holidays

The playpark has been transformed into an inclusive playpark, specially designed so children of all abilities can play together.

Consultation launched on proposed changes to the Definition of Affordable Housing

The Department for Communities has launched a public consultation on proposed changes to the definition of Affordable Housing.

Further engagement event on public consultations

The Department of Health has announced three additional engagement events for the public consultations on reshaping stroke and breast assessment services.

Members sought for the Northern Ireland Building Regulations Advisory Committee

The Department of Finance has launched a public appointment competition to recruit eight members to the Northern Ireland Building Regulations Advisory Committee (NIBRAC).

Department responds to Northern Ireland Public Services Ombudsman investigation.

A spokesperson for the Department for Communities said: “The Department notes the proposed investigation by the Northern Ireland Public Services Ombudsman (NIPSO) into the administration of Personal Independence Payment (PIP). PIP in Northern Ireland is administered in accordance with the same statutory framework that is in place across the rest of the United Kingdom.