

Time is running out to protect our endangered environment warns chief

If we don't take radical action now to protect our environment then every aspect of it is threatened, the head of Northern Ireland's Environment Agency (NIEA) has warned.

---

Continued success in the fight against organised crime groups operating in Northern Ireland

The latest Organised Crime Task Force (OCTF) Annual Report, published today, has outlined how a multi-agency approach is delivering positive results in the fight against crime.

---

Opening of new community health building for Strabane

A new state of the art community health building has been officially opened in Strabane today.

---

Transformation in Action: Advanced Nursing Practitioners in Northern Ireland

Today marks a significant milestone in Nursing as the first cohort of locally trained Advanced Nurse Practitioners (ANPs) successfully complete the programme.

---

Business rates public consultation launched

Launching the consultation at the Institute of Revenues Rating and Valuation conference in Belfast, Permanent Secretary Sue Gray said: "Back in May I announced the Department's intention to undertake a full and comprehensive review of business rates."