

AI Advisory Panel established to drive growth, skills and innovation

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has chaired the first meeting of a new Artificial Intelligence (AI) Advisory Panel, established to help shape Northern Ireland's AI future.

Lough Neagh commercial fisher convicted at Dungannon Magistrates' Court

John Quinn (52) of Derryloughan Road, Coalisland was convicted today at Dungannon Magistrates' Court of fishing illegally within 1610m of the defined mouth of a salmon river and of fishing with incorrectly marked fishing nets.

Minister appoints interim members to the Northern Regional College governing body

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has appointed three interim members to the governing body of Northern Regional College.

Lyons announces agreement for home heating oil support

Communities Minister Gordon Lyons has secured Executive agreement for a £36.4million support package for home heating oil users in Northern Ireland.

Kimmins announces £1m major resurfacing scheme on A1 Banbridge By-pass

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has announced that a £1m major resurfacing scheme on the A1 Banbridge By-pass Dual Carriageway will commence on Friday 17 April 2026.