

Consultation launched to tackle use of mobile phones while driving

A tougher new law around using handheld mobile phones while driving is being proposed by Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins in a bid to make our roads safer.

Education Minister marks construction work on new £38m school for Strangford Integrated College Education Minister Paul Givan has cut the sod on a major capital project to provide a new school building for Strangford Integrated College (IC) in Carrowdore.

Kimmins announces £ 725,000 road improvement scheme for A22 Killinchy Road, Comber

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has announced that a £725,000 carriageway resurfacing scheme on the A22 Killinchy Road Comber will commence on Monday 2 June 2025.

Muir sets out pathway to stronger animal welfare standards

Minister of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs, Andrew Muir, has today published his ambitious 10-point plan to improve animal welfare through a series of impactful reforms.

Education Minister cuts first sod at Kilronan Special School

Education Minister Paul Givan has cut the first sod on a £4.9million project at Kilronan School, Magherafelt.