

Campaign to highlight paramilitary harms is making a difference

The Ending the Harm public awareness campaign is actively changing perceptions about the harms perpetrated by paramilitary gangs in Northern Ireland.

Education Minister responds to harassment

Education Minister, Paul Givan has today responded to the news that a man has been charged with harassment.

Justice Minister condemns disruption of District Policing and Community Safety Partnership meetings

Justice Minister Naomi Long has commented following disruption of recent public meetings of the West Belfast and North Belfast District Policing and Community Safety Partnerships by protestors.

Emergency Care Waiting Time Statistics (October – December 2024)

The Department of Health (DoH) today published statistics on the time spent in emergency care departments (ED) throughout Northern Ireland during the months of October, November, and December 2024.

Road improvement scheme for Ben Madigan Park South, Belfast

A £121,000 carriageway resurfacing scheme on Ben Madigan Park South, Belfast will commence on Monday 3 March 2025.