

First Minister and deputy First Minister welcome the Final Report of the Truth Recovery Independent Panel

First Minister Michelle O'Neill and deputy First Minister Emma Little-Pengelly have welcomed the publication of the final report of the Truth Recovery Independent Panel, which examined Mother and Baby Institutions, Magdalene Laundries, Workhouses, and related pathways and practices in Northern Ireland between 1922 and 1995.

---

Kimmins announces £250,000 resurfacing scheme for A32 Irvinestown Road, Enniskillen, between Cherrymount Roundabout and Hospital Roundabout

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has announced that a £250,000 carriageway resurfacing scheme at A32 Irvinestown Road, between Cherrymount Roundabout and Hospital Roundabout will commence on Monday 20th of July 2026 until Friday 24th of July 2026.

---

Archibald commissions research into economic potential of Irish language

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has commissioned two pieces of independent research, which will focus on the economic impact of the Irish language and support for the Irish medium workforce.

---

Appointment of an independent chair to the Safeguarding Board for Northern Ireland

The Health Minister, Mike Nesbitt, has announced the appointment of an Independent Chair to the Safeguarding Board for Northern Ireland (SBNI).

---

Long welcomes PSNI inspection report

Justice Minister Naomi Long has welcomed the report of an inspection of the Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI).