

Minister Nesbitt launches 'This Is our health' engagement programme

Health Minister Mike Nesbitt today launched a new large scale and innovative engagement programme designed to establish a clear, shared, and credible deal between Northern Ireland's citizens and the health and social care system.

Education Minister announces school building projects to progress to construction stage

Education Minister, Paul Givan has announced that four new build major works projects and nine school enhancement projects will progress to construction stage.

Health Minister commends work of Support While Waiting grant recipients

Minister Nesbitt has announced 20 voluntary and community sector organisations across Northern Ireland will receive a share of a £500,000 fund to assist individuals currently on health and social care waiting lists.

Lyons heralds historic day for Deaf community

Championing the rights of Deaf people is a privilege, Communities Minister Gordon Lyons has said, as he marked the passing of Northern Ireland's first Sign Language Bill.

Givan publishes action plan to address teacher workload

Education Minister Paul Givan has published an ambitious action plan to address challenges surrounding teacher and school leader workload.