

Givan: Parental choice to take priority under new Temporary Variation Proposals

Education Minister, Paul Givan, has today announced plans to reform Northern Ireland's school admissions system, placing parental preference at the heart of decision-making.

Lyons vows stronger powers on tenancy fraud with consultation launch

Communities Minister Gordon Lyons has stepped up efforts to clamp down on fraudsters and protect social housing by launching a consultation on proposals to combat tenancy fraud and misuse in Northern Ireland.

Archibald welcomes Atlantic Technological University new admissions approach

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has welcomed the announcement by Atlantic Technological University of a new admissions approach to engage and support students from the North applying through the Central Applications Office system.

Justice Minister highlights importance of rehabilitation during visit to

Maghaberry Prison

Justice Minister Naomi Long has visited Maghaberry Prison, highlighting the importance of rehabilitation and skills development in preparing people in custody for a successful return to the community.

Publication of Northern Ireland Cancer Waiting Time Statistics: January to March 2026

The Department of Health today published Accredited Official Statistics on cancer waiting times for the quarter ending March 2026.