

Vaccination programme is further extended

A major extension of Northern Ireland's Covid-19 vaccination programme has today been announced.

The programme will continue to be based on a twin track approach, with responsibilities divided between GP practices and the seven regional vaccination centres run by health trusts.

Lyons urges people to have their say on Environment Governance issues

Environment Minister Gordon Lyons today encouraged people to take an active role in shaping Northern Ireland's approach to environmental plans, principles and governance.

Minister Hargey announces over £1.3m for public realm school improvements

Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey has announced funding of £1.37m to 15 Primary and Nursery schools throughout Belfast.

Long launches consultations on Modern Slavery Transparency in Supply Chains (TISC)

Justice Minister Naomi Long has today launched two consultation documents on measures to eradicate modern slavery from the supply chains of public and commercial sector organisations.

Regional hubs signal new era for Civil Service – Murphy

Finance Minister Conor Murphy has today announced plans for a number of new civil service regional hubs.