

Northern Ireland passes sad Covid-19 milestone

Never underestimate this virus, never assume it won't bring tragedy to your door.

Muckamore patients and families encouraged to have their say

Patients and families of Muckamore Abbey Hospital are invited to have their say on the Public Inquiry into abuse at the hospital.

NI Farmers to receive an additional £3.6M

Agriculture Minister Edwin Poots MLA has announced that Northern Ireland farmers are to receive a total of £3.6million in reimbursement payments from the European Commission.

Long saddened by death of Lord Brian Kerr

Justice Minister Naomi Long has expressed her sympathy to the family of Lord Brian Kerr, who has died at the age of 72.

Ministers announce new support services for HIA survivors

First Minister Arlene Foster and deputy First Minister Michelle O'Neill have announced a range of support measures for survivors of Historical Institutional Abuse.