

Lurgan doorstep trader fined for misleading consumer

A Lurgan trader was today fined a total of £1,000 and ordered to pay £1,700 compensation to the victim at Laganside Magistrates' Court for providing false business addresses on paperwork, failing to honour a 10 year guarantee and carrying out substandard work at a consumer's home.

---

Mallon creates messaging platform for front-line workers

Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon has created a messaging platform for front-line workers.

---

Astra Zeneca is protecting people and saving lives

Chief Medical Officer Dr Michael McBride has said people should have high levels of confidence in the Covid-19 vaccines being rolled out in Northern Ireland.

---

Road resurfacing scheme for Steeple Road, Antrim

A £193,000 carriageway and pavement surfacing scheme on Steeple Road, Antrim will commence on Monday 8 February 2021.

---

Health Minister calls on public to report child protection concerns

Health Minister Robin Swann has said that children's services remain open and ready to help protect children and to support families despite the Covid-19 pandemic.