

Long calls on male domestic abuse victims to seek help

The Justice Minister today urged any man experiencing domestic abuse to come forward and seek help.

Speaking on International Men's Day, Naomi Long said the Department of Justice is committed to ensuring all victims can access tailored support.

Domestic Homicide Review Executive Summary published – 'Maeve'

The Department of Justice has today published an Executive Summary report on a review carried out by a Domestic Homicide Review Panel.

DfI team prepared to deliver winter service – Kimmins

As the weather is set to turn colder Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins has assured the public that the Department's winter service team is prepared to take action.

Minister Kimmins and Deputy Mayor welcome awarding of EV charge point contract in council areas

Minister for Infrastructure, Liz Kimmins and the Deputy Mayor of Derry and Strabane, Alderman Niree McMorris have welcomed the appointment of a contractor to deliver over 250 EV charge points across nine local councils including Derry City and Strabane District Council, as part of the Office for Zero Emission Vehicles' (OZEV) On Street Residential Charge Point Scheme (ORCS).

O'Dowd sets out ambition to further support small businesses and revitalise town centres

Finance Minister John O'Dowd has announced plans to accelerate the strategic review of rates and progress changes in the business rates system.