

Roads winter readiness plans in place – Mallon

Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon has announced that the Department is ready for winter to keep traffic moving safely and freely on main roads throughout the months ahead.

Health Minister Robin Swann self-isolating after receiving exposure alert

Health Minister Robin Swann is self-isolating after receiving an exposure notification this evening from the StopCOVID NI proximity app.

Evidence bank documents underline extremely difficult choices

Public debate on measures to combat the growth of Covid-19 is essential, Health Minister Robin Swann has made clear.

Mallon launches Planning Engagement Partnership – to improve community engagement in the planning process

Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon has announced the establishment of a Planning Engagement Partnership.

Measures to strengthen laws protecting children from sexual exploitation to be taken forward

Justice Minister Naomi Long today announced her intention to strengthen existing law to provide greater protection for children from sexual exploitation, and to introduce a specific offence banning upskirting following the Review of the Law on Child Sexual Exploitation.