

NI pet owners must take urgent action when travelling from Great Britain to Northern Ireland

Northern Ireland (NI) pet owners should urgently prepare for changes to pet travel from Great Britain (GB) at the end of the transition period, following an announcement yesterday by the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs.

Weir outlines plans to end period poverty in schools

Education Minister, Peter Weir has announced that period products are to be made freely available to pupils in primary and secondary schools.

Health Minister Robin Swann visits pharmaceutical wholesaler Sangers AAH to see the preparations for the end of the Brexit transition period

Health Minister Robin Swann, along with the Department's Chief Pharmaceutical Officer, Cathy Harrison, visited Sangers AAH warehouse facilities in Belfast to see the extensive preparations they have put in place in preparation for the end of the EU Exit Transition Period.

£292.7m issued in Direct Payments

More than 99% of farmers in Northern Ireland have received their full Direct

Payment for 2020, Agriculture Minister Edwin Poots MLA has announced.

Avian Influenza housing order to come into force

New housing measures are to be introduced as part of the Avian Influenza Prevention Zone in Northern Ireland (NI) from 23 December, Agriculture Minister Edwin Poots MLA has announced.