

Covid-19 press conference – 26 November 2020

The First Minister Arlene Foster and deputy First Minister Michelle O'Neill appeal to people to stay at home during the two-week circuit breaker starting tomorrow. They also discussed, vaccination programme, testing and a new Covid-19 taskforce.

---

Adults with Down's syndrome added to Clinically Extremely Vulnerable list

The Department of Health has confirmed that adults with Down's syndrome have been added to the Clinically Extremely Vulnerable (CEV) list.

---

Long: By working together we can stop crime groups exploiting our community

Long: By working together we can stop crime groups exploiting our community

---

Minister comments on waiting time statistics

Hospital waiting lists must be a major Executive priority in 2021, Health Minister Robin Swann has stressed.

---

Economy Minister to deliver a green economy in Northern Ireland

Economy Minister Diane Dodds has stressed the importance of renewable electricity and her plan to develop a hydrogen economy in Northern Ireland.