

Voluntary and Community sector receives £500,000 boost

Communities Minister Carál Ní Chuilín has joined forces with local philanthropists to invest £500,000 in the Voluntary, Community and Social Enterprise Sector.

Weir updates guidance on use of face coverings in schools

Education Minister Peter Weir today announced that guidance on face coverings will be updated to include wearing them in corridors of post-primary schools.

Long welcomes designation of DoJ to administer Victims' Payments Scheme

Naomi Long said: "I regret that this case ever had to reach the courts, but welcome the judgement and am hopeful that the Executive can now move forward together to progress the delivery of a scheme to support those with serious physical and psychological injuries as a result of the Troubles.

Minister launches Experience Development Programme for tourism providers

Economy Minister Diane Dodds has launched Tourism NI's new programme to provide financial assistance to help support tourism providers in creating experiences that reflect the new Northern Ireland Embrace A Giant Spirit experience brand and stimulate demand for local tourism.

Further education colleges deliver for NI learners and economy – Dodds

Northern Ireland's further education colleges deliver high quality learning that meets the needs of learners and the economy, Minister Diane Dodds said today.