

Archibald criticises British Government's restrictions on steel imports

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has said that the British Government's Steel Trade Measures do not serve the interests of businesses in Northern Ireland.

Archibald introduces landmark Renewable Electricity Generation Bill

Today in the Assembly Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald introduced the Renewable Electricity Generation Bill, a key milestone towards delivering more local renewable electricity and supporting price stability for households and businesses.

Findings from Muckamore and Urology Inquiries demand clear and robust response

The findings of both the Muckamore Abbey Hospital and Urology Services Inquiries demand a clear, direct, and robust response, Health Minister Mike Nesbitt has said.

Ministers welcome Public Inquiry and Redress Scheme legislation

First Minister Michelle O'Neill and deputy First Minister Emma Little-

Pengelly have welcomed the passage of the Inquiry (Mother and Baby Institutions, Magdalene Laundries and Workhouses) and Redress Scheme Bill by the Assembly.

Five companies partner with AMIC on £7.9m productivity drive

Economy Minister, Dr Caoimhe Archibald, has announced a £7.9 million collaborative research and development project between the Advanced Manufacturing Innovation Centre (AMIC) and five local engineering and manufacturing businesses.