

Dodds welcomes increase in Foreign Direct Investment projects in Northern Ireland

Economy Minister Diane Dodds today welcomed the news that over 2,300 jobs had been created through foreign direct investment into Northern Ireland in 2019-20 – an increase of 59% on the year before.

Stormont tree planting marks 25th anniversary of Srebrenica genocide

Junior Ministers Declan Kearney and Gordon Lyons took part in a tree planting ceremony to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the genocide at Srebrenica in Bosnia.

Update on additional support measures for children this summer

Details on resources available to schools this summer to support children have been outlined by Education Minister, Peter Weir today.

Long seeks views on new organised crime offences and a draft organised crime strategy for Northern Ireland

Tackling organised crime and bringing those behind it before the courts remains a priority for the Department of Justice, Naomi Long has said.

‘Contact tracing to become part of everyday life’

That was the message from the Health Minister Robin Swann today while on a visit to a newly established Contact Tracing Centre in Ballymena.