

Plan to improve outcomes in cases of serious sexual assault published

Justice Minister Naomi Long has welcomed the publication of an Implementation Plan to deliver improvements identified in the Gillen Review into the Law and Procedures in Serious Sexual Offences.

Minister highlights role of mediation in resolving housing disputes

Communities Minister Carál Ní Chuilín has urged tenants and landlords in the private rented sector to avail of the Housing Mediation Service as a route to resolving disputes.

Dodds announces another new skills initiative in response to the pandemic

Economy Minister Diane Dodds today announced details of a free Postgraduate Certificate (PgCert) in Operations and Supply Chain Management for people whose career has been impacted by Covid-19.

DAERA to reduce number of inspections for 2020 Basic Payment Scheme

The Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs (DAERA) is to carry out a reduced number of inspections for the 2020 Basic Payment Scheme year, Minister Edwin Poots MLA has announced.

Resurfacing scheme for Belfast Road, Newry

A £300,000 resurfacing scheme on the Belfast Road, Newry has commenced.