

Health Minister commends work of Support While Waiting grant recipients

Minister Nesbitt has announced 20 voluntary and community sector organisations across Northern Ireland will receive a share of a £500,000 fund to assist individuals currently on health and social care waiting lists.

Lyons heralds historic day for Deaf community

Championing the rights of Deaf people is a privilege, Communities Minister Gordon Lyons has said, as he marked the passing of Northern Ireland's first Sign Language Bill.

Minister launches new Trading Standards Service resource to support local businesses

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has launched the Trading Standards Service's Businessline, a dedicated telephone helpline designed to support local businesses with trading standards regulations.

Archibald launches new Matrix report on Engineering Biology

Economy Minister Dr Caoimhe Archibald has launched a major new report highlighting how engineering biology can drive economic growth, improved health outcomes and environmental benefits for Northern Ireland.

Consultation opens on fisheries management plan for non-quota shellfish

A draft fisheries management plan (FMP) which is designed to improve the long-term sustainability of non-quota shellfish stocks in Northern Ireland has opened for public consultation.