

New online environmental incident reporting tool launched by DAERA

DAERA Minister Andrew Muir introduces innovative system to streamline public reporting and investigation of environmental issues.

Acting Chief Inspector of Criminal Justice in Northern Ireland appointed

Justice Minister Naomi Long has appointed James Corrigan as Acting Chief Inspector of the Criminal Justice Inspection for Northern Ireland effective from today, 26 June.

Givan voices disappointment over delay to SEN Regulations

Education Minister, Paul Givan, has today expressed serious concern over delays to the implementation of the Special Educational Needs (SEN) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2026, highlighting the impact on children, families and schools across Northern Ireland.

Statement from the Infrastructure Minister on unspent budget claims

Infrastructure Minister, Liz Kimmins has responded to a number of reports that the Department has handed back unspent budget.

Justice Minister pledges support for minority ethnic communities

The Justice Minister Naomi Long has expressed her “wholehearted reassurance” to members of minority ethnic communities in Northern Ireland.