

Road Safety Week: Beware the Dangers on Rural Roads

As Road Safety Week (18 – 24 November 2019) gets underway all road users are reminded of the hazards we face when travelling on our rural roads.

The future of antibiotics depends on all of us

Everyone must work together to fight the superbugs. The future of antibiotics depends on us all.

Co. Londonderry Directors agree to Disqualification

The Department for the Economy has accepted disqualification undertakings from the directors of a licensed restaurant business.

Statement from the Head of Civil Service welcoming appointment of President to HIA Redress Board

Speaking after the announcement by the Lord Chief Justice Sir Declan Morgan today on the appointment of the President of the Historical Institutional Abuse Redress Board, the Head of the Civil Service David Sterling said:

Chief Medical Officer announces further commitment to tackle obesity

Dr Michael McBride, Chief Medical Officer has reiterated his commitment to tackling the prevalence of overweight and obesity in Northern Ireland.