

£120,000 resurfacing scheme on Cottage Road, Killeen

A £120,000 carriageway resurfacing scheme on the Cottage Road, Killeen will commence on Monday 11 November 2019.

Departmental statement on RCN ballot result

The Department will be holding further detailed discussions with the RCN and other trade unions on Friday. Dialogue remains the only way forward.

Positive family support crucial in prisoner rehabilitation – Director General

Positive relationships and contact with family can play a crucial role in the rehabilitation process, the Director General of the Northern Ireland Prison Service has said.

Good Relations Indicators: 2019 Update Report

The Good Relations Indicator report published by The Executive Office today presents a range of statistics relating to community relations, including numbers of hate crimes, attitudinal data on Protestant/Catholic relations and attitudes towards mixing in schools, neighbourhoods and the workplace.

Weekend closure of A6 Glenshane Road at Drumahoe for essential works

Due to essential works the A6 Glenshane Road near Drumahoe, will be closed in both directions at its junction with Tirbracken Road from 7.00pm on Friday 8 November to 5.00am on Monday 11 November.