

New Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon will focus on creating a sustainable infrastructure for future generations

New Minister for Infrastructure, Nichola Mallon will focus on creating sustainable infrastructure for future generations.

BDG member converts to dairy production

Greyabbey farmer and Business Development Group member Lawrence Bowden has converted the his farm to dairy production and began milking his first cows in the autumn of 2015.

Gearing for Change in 2020 – with help from CAFRE and the BDG Scheme

With the right data and information and some help from CAFRE, you can make informed decisions to improve your business as the external environment changes.

Deal is done – funding must follow: Foster and O'Neill

Funding to make the commitments outlined in the New Decade, New Approach deal a reality must follow quickly, First Minister Rt Hon Arlene Foster and deputy First Minister Michelle O'Neill have told Prime Minister Boris Johnson and Taoiseach Leo Varadkar.

Visit to new CAFRE Calf Housing Facilities

Recently a County Antrim Business Development Group visited the new calf rearing facilities at the CAFRE Dairy Farm.