

Official Statistics: Weekly rainfall and river flow summary: 1 to 7 March 2017

The first week of March was wet across England. River flows are normal or higher for the time of year at almost all indicator sites.

Official Statistics: Weekly rainfall and river flow summary: 22 to 28 February 2017

Following a wet week across England, particularly in the north-west, river flows are mainly normal or higher for the time of year.

Official Statistics: Woodfuel demand and usage in Scotland 2016

This report provides data on existing and potential woodfuel use in Scotland and covers the year 2015. It also assesses the possible additional use of woodfuel in the next few years.

Official Statistics: Weekly rainfall and river flow summary: 15 to 21 February 2017

A dry week across most of England. River flows decreased at the majority of sites, but remain normal for the time of year at just over half of sites.

Official Statistics: Forestry Commission England Headline Performance Indicators at 31 December 2016

The document will present Forestry Commission England's six headline indicators: number of high priority forest pests in the UK Plant Health Risk Register, percentage of known tree felling that is carried out with Forestry Commission approval, percentage of woodland in active management, area of woodland, cost of managing the Public Forest Estate and number of private sector businesses operating on the Public Forest Estate.