

Taskforce launched to enhance police response to people smuggling

A new dedicated taskforce has been launched to transform the way in which the police respond to organised immigration crime gangs operating from the UK.