

Taunton company director sentenced for providing unlicensed security

A Somerset man has been handed a suspended jail sentence after he provided unlicensed security to a party attended by 400 under 18-year-olds.