

TD releases ballot results of applications for Group 1 Private Driving Instructor's Test (Quota for Specified Persons)

The Transport Department (TD) today (July 30) conducted balloting for the applications for the Group 1 (private cars and light goods vehicles) Private Driving Instructor's (PDI) Test (Quota for Specified Persons), and the ballot results have been released.

The ballot results have been uploaded to the TD's website (www.td.gov.hk) for viewing by applicants. Applicants can also check the ballot results by calling 2804 2600 or visiting the Driving Services Section of the TD at 19 Pui Ching Road, Ho Man Tin, Kowloon, during office hours from 9am to 5pm from Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays.

The TD will send letters to individual applicants informing them of their ballot order numbers and process the applications according to the ballot order. It is expected that invitations will be sent to eligible applicants of the Group 1 (private cars and light goods vehicles) PDI Test (Quota for Specified Persons) by post from around September. Details of the test will be stated in the invitation letter. For applicants who fail to meet the qualification requirements, the TD will notify them in writing when their applications are processed according to the ballot order.
