

Temporary suspension of “iAM Smart” services during system upgrade

The Digital Policy Office announced today (May 12) that in order to facilitate the introduction of more new functions, the "iAM Smart" services will be temporarily suspended from 2am on May 14 (Wednesday) to perform a system upgrade. "iAM Smart" services are expected to resume by 5am on the same day. Please visit the "iAM Smart" thematic website (www.iamsmart.gov.hk) for the latest service arrangements.

If necessary, users are advised to make advance arrangements for the online services.
