

The Evaluation Registry: a new home for Government evaluation

In March this year, the Evaluation Task Force launched the Evaluation Registry: a website which will act as a single home for evaluations across Government.