

The Fuel Handling Plant

The Fuel Handling Plant is a critical part of the UK's nuclear infrastructure. It safely receives, stores, and processes nuclear fuel from EDF's reactor fleet on the Sellafield site.